What is Faceplant?

Faceplant is an annual retreat for middle school students. This year we're headed to Golden Bell Camp in beautiful Divide, CO. The camp has a gym, snack bar, pool tables, etc. There will be lots of games, an incredible team leading us in worship and great speakers who will challenge us to live and grow in Christ!

What to bring:

Top and bottom sheets, sleeping bag if you want, (blanket, pillow and towel are provided) flashlight, Bible, pen, journal, clothes, toiletries, winter clothing (boots, gloves, etc.), an appropriate swimsuit (NO 2-pieces or bikinis, unless a t-shirt is worn over them or Speedos, no exceptions!), a sack dinner for Friday, and money for lunch on Sunday. Bring a phone at your own risk, only to contact parents on the way home!

What to leave at home:

Electronics of all kinds (Ipods, Ipads, MP3 players, etc.) Because unplugging for a weekend could change your life. Also, don't bring drugs, alcohol, fireworks, or anything that is illegal in your possession according to federal and state laws. Finally, don't bring your crabby pants or a negative attitude, either!

☺
